SORT 65th ANNIVERSARY ACTIVITIES, ATLANTA 2002

It's an exciting year for the Staff Organizations Round Table as we celebrate our 65th anniversary.

Here are some events that we would like for you to join us in Atlanta during the ALA Annual Conference:

It's back again...Historic Walking Tour of Atlanta**

Dates: Friday, June 14, 2002, 8:00a.m. – 11:00a.m.

Monday, June 17, 2002, 8:00a.m. – 11:00a.m.

Meeting place: One Margaret Mitchell Plaza @ Central Library of the Atlanta-Fulton County Public Library

Description: Join us as we'll discover what makes make Atlanta the "Peachtree City" as we explore the "historical and architectural greats" of the downtown area such as site of the 1939 premiere of Gone With The Wind, African American historical sites, visit to outstanding building lobbies, and sites and markers relating to the battle, siege and evacuation of Atlanta during the Civil War including the March to the Sea. There will be a time to just "sit back and relax" and to have coffee and refreshments.

Admission information - tickets can be purchased online @ <http://www.ala.org/events/annual2002/> or you can mail in registration to ALA, Department 77-6565, Chicago, IL 60678-6565

SORT members: $5.00

Non – SORT member: $8.00 – this includes a membership in SORT

SPECIAL NOTES:

1. Tours will be lead by "volunteer librarians".
2. After the tour, you may want to visit on your own World of Coca-Cola, CNN, and Olympic Centennial Park.
