Library Educational Community Rep. -

Secretary –

REVIEW BOARD

The Review Board consists of seven voting members, each serving a two-year term:

- * Chair of the Review Board
- * A representative from Library Paraprofessional and Support Staff round table (LPSS)
- * A representative from the ULA Continuing Education Committee
- * A representative from each of the library service areas (Two of whom must possess an MLS):

- Public Services
- Technical Services
- Technology
- Administration/Management

In addition to voting members, two non-voting members will sit on the Review Board.

* A non-voting secretary, serving a one-year term, will assist the Review Board in completing their duties, keeping records of participants' progress, and coordinating activities of the Review Board.

* A non-voting representative of the Library Education Community will serve a two year term.

Terms for the representative from LPSS, Public Services, Technology, and the Chair of the Review Board begin in odd-numbered years. Representatives from Continuing Education, Technical Services, Administration/Management and the representative from the Library Education Community begin their terms in even-numbered years.

All members of the Review Board are appointed by the ULA President and approved by the ULA Board.

The Review Board will meet as needed to review submissions.

The chair is a non-voting member of the ULA Board of Directors. Annually, the chair will submit a report to the ULA President and request replacement for the Review Board members whose terms have ended.
