

ULA Program Board Members Goals for 2011-2012

Academic Library Section

- Send an interest survey to Academic Section membership to determine how to prioritize future training needs
- Improve communication between academic librarians for the purpose of professional development and improving practice
  - Make better use of existing ULA resources, including Academic Library Section page on www.ula.org, MemberClicks and ULA Newsletter
- Share case studies of successful partnerships between academic libraries and public libraries (e.g. public programming)
- Hold a business meeting at the 2012 ULA Conference
- Host workshop on research methods at 2012 ULA Conference

Archives, Manuscripts, and Special Collections Round Table (AMSC) – Chair: Gordon Daines

- Sponsor at least two programs at the ULA Annual Conference
- Revise last year's preconference workshop and update the accompanying slides
- Explore the possibility of rehosting last year's preconference workshop in other locations
- Maintain updated information on the ULA website
- Liaison with the Conference of Intermountain Archivists and other groups to attract members to the Round Table

Association of College and Research Libraries (ACRL) Round table – Chair: Betty Rozum

- Sponsor two programs at the ULA annual meeting

Business Round Table (BURT) – Chair: Ed Hahn

- Sponsor two programs at the ULA annual meeting

Children's Services Round Table (CSRT) – Chair: Annie Eastmond

- Put on a fall workshop in conjunction with YART to encourage networking and provide information/training for public and school librarians/staff who work with children and youth. Scheduled for Sept. 23 at Provo city library.
- Work more closely with the State Library through their Youth Services coordinator, Matt McLain, to let all libraries in the state know of information and opportunities for Youth Services.
- We are working with the ULA webmaster to make the ULA website a one-stop place for information as well and keep our roundtable site updated.
- Plan a well-rounded pick of selections at next year's ULA Conference for Youth Services people to select from.

Continuing Education Committee – Co-Chairs: Connie Lamb and Karen Griggs

- Organize and sponsor the 2011 ULA Fall Workshop in Cedar City.

- Sponsor one or two programs at the ULA annual conference in 2012.
- Continue to update and add material to the CE Committee webpage on the ULA website.
- Advertise training opportunities.

- Update the GODORT information on the ULA website at least three times.

Health Round Table (HeaRT) – Chair: John Bramble

- Smooth Leadership Transition
- Current Webpage Content
- Sponsor at least one ULA Conference breakout session
- Meet at least once for an event that is healthy for the mind and body.

Intellectual Freedom Committee – Chair: Wanda Huffaker

- Plan 2 sessions at the Annual Conference
- Continue to support the HOPE organization in St. George regarding the library books that were burned and otherwise stolen from the facility designated for the Twin Cities library on the Utah/Arizona border.
- Update the web page and make it more of a resource

Library Paraprofessional & Support Staff Round Table (LPSSRT) – Chair: Pam Grace

- Update our current membership list and recruit new members by promoting the benefits of being a member of the Round Table.
- Update our website.
- Make easily available to all ULA members the handout materials and other notes from ULA conference presenters at sessions sponsored by LPSSRT.

New Perspectives Round Table (NPRT) – Chair: Rebecca Schroeder

- Sponsor at least 2 programs at Annual Conference
- Update and maintain information of the ULA website
- Plan a NPRT business meeting during Annual conference

Paraprofessional Certificate Review Board (PCRB) – Chair: Linda Liebhardt

- Meet, either in person or via phone, to discuss any applicants who have submitted during the past year.
- We will meet at least once a year at ULA, if not at other times

- Send an email to all library directors in the state to make them aware of the Paraprofessional Certificate Program, encouraging them to inform their staff and to support any of their staff who might wish to participate.

Public Section – Chair: Xiaolian Deng

- Maintain updated information on the ULA website

Trustees and Friends Round Table (TAFRT) – Chair: Paul Benner

- Sponsor Roundtable events

Young Adult RoundTable (YART) – Chair: Ann-Marie Marchant

- To provide a Fall Conference to encourage networking and provide information/training for public and school librarians who work with teens. We have planned our Fall Conference with CSRT (Children's Services Round Table) for September 23rd at the Provo City Library.
- We are working with the ULA webmaster to make the ULA website a one-stop place for information.
- We plan on having a variety of well-rounded sessions at the ULA Conference this year for those interested in Teen Services.
- We hope to encourage more teen librarians and others interested in teen services to become involved in YART.

Respectfully Submitted,

Valeri Craigle
